This Weeks WOW (Wine of the Week)

Made by Joch Bosworth in his impeccable organic vineyards in McLaren Vale, the Battle of Bosworth wines are fantastic. This one benefits from the addition of a tiny amount of 'Amarone' style wine – intense, dark and wickedly spicy, and coupled with a clever combination of American and French oak, it makes this wine a veritable force to be reckoned with. If you want to enjoy another of Joch's stunning wines – the 2002 BoB Organic Shiraz, you will find yet more seamless, classy, controlled, black fruit flavours, that linger on the palate for an eternity.
