Campbell Mattinson

Battle of Bosworth McLaren Vale White Boar Shiraz 2004

It's the buxom bosworth that's for sure. A wine with a huge chest of soft, tender, chocolatey fruit, the feeling of spicy oak drilled deep into the saturated fruitiness of it. Warm alcohol surges through the finish. Full of very fine, very well integrated tannins. It's worthy of the extra price - because it is a special wine, in the sweet full-on style. Drink: 2009-2018.
