Battle of Bosworth
2006 Shiraz

'This wine is named for the last conflict of the War of the Roses, though ironically, the Bosworth's Edgehill Vineyard carries the name of the first battle of Charles I's Civil War. This mature vineyard was converted to organic viticulture in 1995. A portion of cane-cut, Amarone-style fruit gives complexity and a ripe prune note. There's depth, richness and a concentration of brooding, brambly, blackberry pastille flavours as well as silky-smooth textures and ripe, approachable tannins.'
