

*2006 Battle of Bosworth Shiraz,
McLaren Vale, A$24*

The label is named for the last conflict of the Wars of the Roses, though, ironically, the Bosworth's Edgehill vineyard carries the name of the first battle of Charles I's civil war. This mature vineyard was converted to organic viticulture in 1995. A portion of cane-cut, Amarone-style fruit gives complexity and a ripe prune note. There's depth, richness and a concentration of brooding, brambly, blackberry pastille flavours as well as silky-smooth texture and ripe, approachable tannins. PF
